DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-17, drawn to a method of extinguishing fire, classified in class 169, subclass 46.
 - II. Claims 18-23, drawn to an apparatus for extinguishing fire, classified in class 169, subclass 54.
 - III. Claims 24-28, drawn to a method of preventing fire, classified in class 169, subclass 45.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the method step of claim 1 can be done by hand and the apparatus of claim 18 can be used to distribute any distributable material in any user-selected process.

Inventions III and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the method step of claim 24 can be done by hand and the apparatus of claim 18 can be used to distribute any distributable material in any user-selected process.

Inventions I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the method recited in claim 1 of applying crushed glass to a fire-containing surface is an entirely different process from the method recited in claim 24 of surrounding an oil container with crushed glass. The disclosure does not teach the method step of surrounding an oil container with crushed glass as part of a method of extinguishing a fire. The disclosure actually teaches the method step of surrounding an oil container with crushed glass as part of a method of preventing oil spills.

2. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. A telephone call was made to Mr. Roger Zimmerman on July 25, 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
